LT. GOVERNOR DARDENNE RECEIVES STATE LEADER AWARD FROM AMERICA'S SERVICE COMMISSION

America's Service Commission presented Lt. Governor Jay Dardenne with its inaugural State Leader Award at the National Conference on Volunteering and Service this week in New Orleans. The Award, presented by the Association of State Service Commissions recognized Lt. Governor Dardenne for his passion and appreciation for volunteerism and service.

Wendy Spencer, CEO of Volunteer Florida, presented the award, "In recent years Lt. Governor Dardenne has witnessed firsthand the impact of volunteerism which has further convinced him of the great benefits volunteers and National Service programs like AmeriCorps can have in communities."

Lieutenant Governor Dardenne has always been an advocate for volunteerism, even before becoming Lieutenant Governor and overseeing Volunteer Louisiana. In his years as a public servant and prior he has been a constant advocate for litter abatement and an advocate for the Muscular Dystrophy Association.
